CEC Subgroup Reports:

1. Webinar task force group (cec-webinars)
    The webinar What makes a good Mentor? occurred on March 4, and the new panel speaker format facilitated by Kate Hill was quite successful. A second March webinar titled Upcycling a Schol Comm Unit was postponed due to the Covid-19 situation, as was the April webinar titled Unpaywall/Net Cost Per Paid Use.

    The six-month embargo of the October 24, 2019 webinar titled Designing for Accessibility presented by Mellissa Green has passed, and the recording is now freely available on YouTube.

    The CEC Webinar procedural documentation was updated to reflect the new Wild Apricot interface, and procedures using the Zoom platform will be implemented at the start of the next term. Ideas and lessons learned from the NASIG 2020 Online event will be taken into consideration for future CEC webinars.

2. Group to coordinate/maintain captioning (cec-captions)
    The team transferred the remediated caption files to the NASIG Webmaster replaced the error-prone auto captioned files.

3. Group that updates core competencies cec-core-comp)
    Team is in the process of incorporating Board-approved updates to the Scholarly Communication Librarians core competencies document.

4. Group to add ccbysa disclaimer on applicable NASIGuides (cec-guides)
    Nothing to report

5. Area to handle CEC webpage updates (cec-web-liasion)
    Nothing to report

6. Area to identify and rectify CEC document revision issues (cec-docs)
   Nothing to report

7. Group to pilot Twitter chat (cec-twitter-chat)
   Nothing to report

Completed Activities, placing emphasis on any activities supporting the 2017-2021 Strategic Plan
The CEC successfully completed the transition from the AMO to the Wild Apricot registration system.
The CEC has decided to transition from WebEx to Zoom for all future webinars.
Several CEC members assisted with the planning and deployment of the NASIG 2020 Online Conference, and enabled Slack for use as a back-end communication tool.
